ALMA MATER

Where the river valley widens,
Kamargo stately flows,
Stands the High School of Port Leyden
Neath the hills it knows.

Alma Mater, give us wisdom,
Love and stength to do,
Make us see the beauty round us,
Teach us to be true.

High school days will soon be over,
Swiftly gliding by,
Cherish then each passing hour,
Make it linger nigh.

With her good natured beaming face,
Shirley's welcome every place.

Dave's not wild, yet not very tame
Fun's the field he earns his fame

Basketball playing is Joe's delight,
And on the court he does alright.

Jean is a blonde and cheerful lass,
All her studies she's sure to pass.

Slow and easy is this swell girl,
Nancy's hair never lacks a curl.

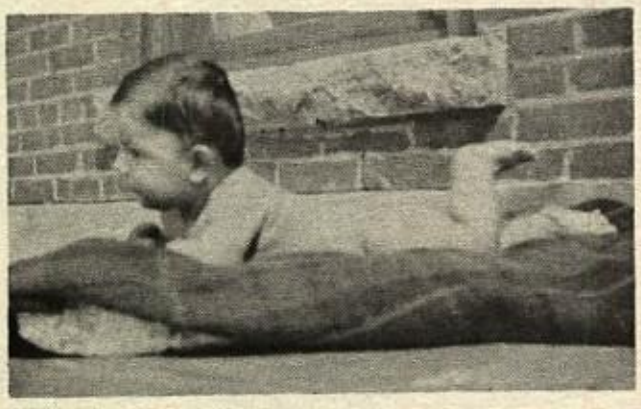
Rah, Rah, What a mighty spirit
Fills Betty Ann's little frame.

Joanne is a whiz in gym class,
And has a smile for any lad or lass.

Thunder, lightning, sunshine, breeze!
Lois, Yes! If you please.

Eileen? Why should life all labor be.

Betty's short and dark as we know
But we hope she'll never grow.



Don never seems to shout,
Is he guiet? I have my doubt.

Shirley sigh'd to many,
Though, she loved but one.

Thelma sayeth little,
but thinketh more.

Betty, a quiet carefree miss,
A heart full of bliss.

Glenn seldom seems to worry,
And he's never in a hurry.

Shirley is quiet and rather shy,
But with her looks she'll get by.

Richard spect he grow'd,
Nobody made him.

Elmer, a quiet lad in class,
Gets along with a pretty lass.

THE CLASS PROPHECY

As we, the Seniors of 1948, leave the Port Leyden Central School for the last time think of ourselves in the future. Twenty years later, in 1968, we predict to find ourselves in the following places.

Betty Beebe is an usherette in the Metropolitan Opera Theatre, when she's not at home looking after her family.

Joe Fraser is a big time gambler and runs a gambler's house on top of the "Red & White" stores in New York.

Nancy Beck has finally gotten that "mink" coat but is still working on the "diamond".

Shirley Hoffman owns an ice cream parlor in London and is specializing in "Port" sundaes.

Eileen Smith has made her home in the San Fernando Valley and is living peacefully with her husband and nine children.

Glenn Stevens has just accepted a new position at Harvard University as basketball coach.

Richard Ripp is now running a feed mill down in Texas. He grows his own corn on a ranch and raises beef on the side.

Shirley Hall has a little sewing shop in Port Leyden and runs it with the help of her five daughters.

Elmer Rocker and the "Mrs", the former Miss Jean Stewart, multimillionairess, live in South America on a rubber plantation.

Joanne Parrish is directing the Phil-Harmonic orchestra in Chicago. She has also written a few songs, her latest being, "I'm Waiting For My Corpse To Come Back".

Thelma Mooney is quite busy now, as she just took over a new position as secretary to the mayor of New York City.

Betty Mullaney is head nurse at Bellevue hospital and has just discovered a new disease of the heart which she named "Shadowing".

Betty Ann Pearson is living quietly on the McKeever Road with a cat and parrot. She couldn't find anyone to live with her way back there in the sticks.

David Marmon has a lumber business in California but also holds a position as photographer on Metro-Goldwyn set.

Lois Trombley is over in Paris now buying clothes for Best's Department Store in New York, where she works.

Don Trombley is still riding around in big cars when he's not busy working in his new hotel which opened a few days ago.

Shirley Mashaw, still single, is studying music in the great city of Paris, under the famous musician Chaminade.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1945, twenty-five young hardworking students entered in the freshman room. The feelings in our hearts were rare. Now we were growing up surely for we were in long awaited years of High School with Glenn Stevens as our president. Under the guidance of Miss Laudadio we had a class picnic and to raise money for that New York trip which was so far off we had a carnival which proved to be a huge success.

Next we went a step higher, to the Sophomore Class where the teachers were all glad to see us back in school. We had lost three students and gained a new one, Nancy Beck. Shirley Mashaw was elected president for we thought it about time a woman took over our class. Mr. Meekins ruled us very well as everything that we planned and carried out was a success.

The Junior year is one we shall never forget for we got our gings and were very proud of them. Nineteen of us, which now made up the class sold writing paper, pencils and had a box social and a dance. Elmer Rocker was president with Miss Mahalyi as our advisor.

Now, to the present status and the one big final year. Mr. Royal was our advisor with Joe Fraser as our president. We had several bake sales, two raffles, sold magazines subscriptions, presented a play and put out the yearbook which filled our treasury to the brim. The hard work earnings of our four years went for our trip to New York on Memorial Day weekend. We enjoyed our trip very much and realize that all our hard work was done for a wonderful time in the end.

SENIOR PLAY

The annual Senior play of the port Leyden Central School was presented to all on March 18, 1948.

The caste of the "Baby Sitter" consisted of: Shirley Mashaw (the "baby sitter") - Carrie, Donald Trombley - Bob, Johnny Reilly - Junior, Gordon Vienneau - Lefty, Shirley Hall - Mother, Glenn Stevens - Father, Betty Ann Pearson - Eunice, Joanne Parrish - Midge, Jean Stewart - Dot, Betty Mullaney - Jane, Lois Trombley - Helen, Elmer Rocker,- Carl, Nancy Beck - Mrs. Gordon, Joe Fraser - Mr. Gordon.

The ordeals of this "Baby Sitter" is as true-to-life as possible. Carrie is Bob's girl friend and when in an emergency, Bob was forced to break a special date with her to take out Eunice, a daughter of Bob's parents' friends. She offered to stay with Junior so that Bob's parents would think her worthy of him. Carrie is having a hard time making Junior and his pal, Lefty, behave when two friends of the regular baby sitter Midge and Dot, arrive. They say that they will help Carrie but it seems that the two girls and little boys get involved in "raiding" the icebox and in that way they were much more to the advantageof the boys than to Carrie. After a hard and hair-raising evening, all is well when the parents and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon arrived home.

The director of the hilarious play was Miss Agostina Schillaci. Miss Schillaci showed lots of enthusiasm and patience during rehearsals. It is very hard on a director not having everyone at rehearsals and to show such effort at the same time. Everyone will agree that it was she that made our play a success and not ourselves.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of nineteen hundred andforty-eight, being of sound mind, and about to pass to higher realms, do ordain and proclaim this document to be our last will and testament. We request this valuable document to be executed, by the faculty, as follows:

To our parents, teachers and members of the Board of Education, we have done ev - erything possible to educate us thus far, we leave our everlasting gratitude. We also leave a sincere promise to prove ourselves worthy of their help.

To our next of kin, the Juniors, we leave all priority to Senior dignity and superiority. This they must make good use of and not abuse. We also appoint them executives of Study Hall, unless deemed unfit to be so appointed.

To the up and coming Sophomores, we leave the privilege of advancing to the above named Study Hall. This will give them some needed experience in the ways of the authorized executives. Providing they can control all their emotions of being granted this honor.

To the Freshmen, we leave the care and guidance of the new high school students of nineteen hundred and forty-eight. In order to do this we leave them with the power endowed to the Sophomores of present.

I, Eileen Smith, leave my amazing silence to William Marmoh. Everyone knows he needs it more than I.

I, David Marmon,leave to Mr. Luther Meekins my many jokes, which he may use as he sees fit.

I, Nancy Beck, leave my ever present pose to Jerry Howard.

I, Shirley Mashaw, leave to Vera Hozelwood my ability to keep brothers coming in the front and out the back doors.

I, Betty Ann Pearson, leave my temper, which is of a rapid variety, to Annis Main.

I, Thelma Mooney, leave all my ambition to Robert Weber.

I, Jean Stewart, leave all my tears, which flow at an instant, to Bernard Swartzman.

I, Richard Ripp, leave my blushy-red face to Madeline Denslow.

I, Shirley Hoofman, leave my apparent bewilderment to Earl Axtell.

I, Betty Mullaney, leave my ability to say a lot and mean nothing to Robert Maryhugh.

I, Shirley Hall, leave my curly hair to Herman Weber.

I, Betty Beebe, leave my shy grin to Tom Morley.

I, Joanne Parrish, leave my ability to play basketball to Rita Croneiser.

I, Elmer Rocker, leave Barbara Fahey my ability to be cool and calm at all times.

I, Donald Trombley, leave my being tired to Madeline Korman.

I, Joe Fraser, leave my sales talk to the Juniors, they can use it next year.

I, Glenn Stevens, leave my ability to provoke the teachers to Lowell Smith.

Signed this first day of June in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-eight, by the Class of '48.

Activities

BAND

The Port Leyden Band under the direction of Miss Genevieve Premo, presented their first public performance of the year with the annual winter concert in December.

The spring program was a very busy one with eighteen soloists, and an equal number of vocal soloists as well as the band entered in New York State School Music Association Festival in Rome in May.

Eleven members -- Robert Marmon, Betty Mullaney, Joanne Parrish, Rita Croneiser, Sandra Chase, Janet Rocker, William Reilly, Donald Galaraneau, Joanne Hall, Bernard Swartzman, and Connie Croneiser -- were selected to rehearse with the Lewneida League Concert Band every other Monday evening and participated in the concert in April.

The annual Spring Concert was presented in May, the band marched as usual in the Memorial Day Parade and concluded the year's work by performing at Commencement exercises.

During the first semester, an operetta, "Chonita", was prepared and presented at two performances, under the direction of Miss Genevieve Primo. The cast includes; Chonita- Shirley Mashaw, Murdo- Jerry Howard, Stefan- Bernard Swartzman, Baron Stanescue- Robert Marmon, Baroness Stanescue- Betty Mullaney, Konrad, their son- Joe Fraser, Emil, a servant- David Marmon, Gypsy Dancing Girls- Lillian Korman, Madeline Korman, Betty McIntyre, Stella McIntyre, Sally Mashaw, Barbara McDermott. The other members of the chorus made up the Gypsy tribe. Accompanist- Joanne Parrish.

The following members were chosen to represent Port Leyden in the Lewneida League mixed chorus which rehearsed twice monthly in Boonville and presented a concert with the League Concert Band in April; Sopranos- Shirley Mashaw, Shirley Hall, Thelma Mooney; Contraltos- Betty Mullaney, Betty Ann Pearson; Tenors- Richard Ripp, Irving Post, Robert Marmon, William Reilly; Bases- Jerry Howard, Bernard Swartzman, David Marmon, Joseph Fraser. One of the three accompanists in the chorus is Joanne Parrish.

The chorus as a whole, participated in the Annual Spring Festival of the Lewneida League, held at the Boonville Fairgrounds, June 4. Miss Helen Hosmer of the Crane Department of Music, Potsdam State Teachers College, was again conductor of the mass chorus at the festival.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club started the year under the supervision of Miss Agostina Schillaci and Mr. Thomas Carpenter. It is composed of members from the four high school grades with the following officers: President - Shirley Mashaw; Vice-President - Glenn Stevens; Secretary and Treasurer - Shirley Hall.

The group started its season with a one-act play titled "Balcony Scene" directed by Mr. Carpenter. Although the play was not judged the prize play of the evening, Robert Maryhugh won top honors as the male actor of the evening. Others members of the cast included Vera Hazelwool, Barbara Fahey, Violet White, Glenn Stevens and Jack Paddock.

This spring the group cast the play "Nine Girls" by Wilfred Pettitt. Directed by Mr. Carpenter it was presented February 26 and proved to be a hugh success. Members of the cast included: Sally Mashaw, Faithe O'Brien, Barbara McDermott, Betty Ann Pearson, Betty Mullaney, Vera Hazelwood, Sue Morley, Genevieve Villiere, Janet Rocker, and Shirley Mashaw.

With themoney which the play "Nine Girls" brought in a new set was bought,,which was made and put by Mr. Battles, Mr. Carpenter and some of the shop boys.

LEYDEN JAR

The Leyden Jar Staff, this year, was made up of thirty-five willing, and capable members. Much of this year's enthusiasm of the staff has undoubtedly been encouraged by the staff advisor, Miss Schillaci, who has generously devoted many long hours making eadh issue a success. Manyevenings before an issue of"The Leyden Jar", a light could be seen glowing in the windows of the school. No, the place wasn't haunted. Just a group of eager reporters busy doing last minute jobs on thepaper they are so proud to claim as theirs. These, after hours of effort, are an example of the bursting energy that flows in the blood of the young reporters and their editor, Betty Mullaney.

The staff has been fortunate in having two capable young people to assist in the Art Department. Martha Dockstader and Robert Marmon have shown outstanding ability in this field, and have added to the attractiveness of each issue.

One of the reasons for the huge circulation of "The Leyden Jar" may be due to the effective way in which the sports were covered by Donald Trombley. Our great success in basketball this year has encouraged our reporter to devote extra time in printing the praise they deserve.

The Leyden Jar this year has passed all other previous papers of our school.

GIRL SCOUTS

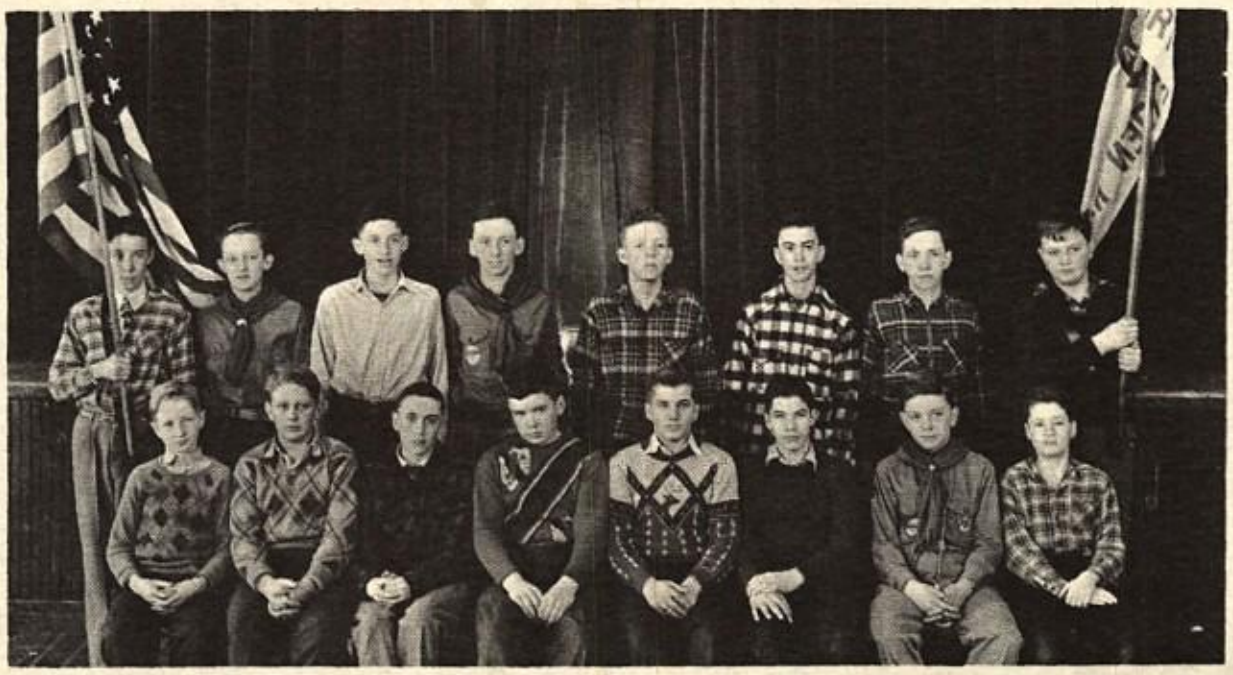
The Girl Scouts are made up of two patrols. The Intermediate patrol is composed of 4th through 7th grade girls with Miss Kenealy and Mrs. Thomas as leaders. The Senior patrol is composed of 8th through 12th year girls with Miss Wilcox and Miss Boland as their leaders. The girls meet every Monday night and work on various projects. For entertainment they had a fall picnic, an Xmas party and a dance.



BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts meet every Thursday night in the school gym. The troup is composed of three patrols, each with a patrol leader and assistant patrol leader. Mr. McKenzie is scout leader with Mr. Meurer as assistant.

The Scouts are working for various merit badges and rank advancement. The boys had a charter night in April where they obtained a charter authorizing them as a registering troup.

The Scouts put on a dance April 2, which proved to be a hugh success to add money to their treasury.

LIBRARY CLUB

First Row; Beatrice Mashaw, Genevieve Villiere, Stella McIntyre, Joyce Curtis. Second Row; Faithe O'Brien, Miss Cole, Martha Dockstader.

The Library Club is a new organization this year with seven members, under Miss Cole, who is their leader. They arrange the books in the library and learn about various library work. The club enjoyed a Christmas party this year, which was their only recreation.

F.F.A.

Charles Mooney, Earl Axtell, Herman Weber, Robert Weber, Mr. Battles.

The F.F.A. is a small group composed of six high school boys with Mr. Battles as their leader. The boys made a trailer, which they sold and had a raffle on turkeys. They also had a dance in the fall which was a success.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY

Lewneidia League Chemps 47-48. The Varsity team this year, from the frist was determined to win the League, after pulling a hard fought 3rd. place last year. This year the team proved to be an agressive squad of players with the will to win, whether ahead or behind in the ball game. Port clinched the Lewneidia League Championship after winning the first 12 games of league play, although they dropped their 13th. game to Beaver River by two points. The Port team with its winning streak of 14 games is believed to be one of the longest winning streaks a Port team ever had. Five of the lettermen are seniors and will be lost to the team through graduation. They are Fraser, Trombley, Stevens, Rocker, and Ripp.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Lewneida League Champs 47-48. The Port J-V's contest after downing the Beaver River Courtmen for the championship won 9 out of 11 League encounters. The team, with a high sprit to win played fine basketball through out the season, using good pass work and a strong defense.

BASEBALL

Port Leyden hopes to have a successful season this year with all its regulars from last year out for baseball this year.

SKIING

The Port Leyden skiers won the Lewenida League Ski Meet for the third straight year, thereby winning permanent possession of the Snow Ridge Trophy.

Four Port Leyden Skiers represented their school on the Lake Placid High School Winter Carnival, and represented our school at the Old Forge Ski Meet. They had very successful season this year.

Soccer begam this year with the Port team buckling down to calisthenics and hard practice to get in shape for League frays, The team played aggressive ball, with fine passwork, winning three out of five league encounterers.
